Media & Travel Information

The Georgia Sports Communications staff is pleased to assist you with your coverage of Georgia Softball. We will provide pregame notes, statistics and scorecards, NCAA box scores, fax and e-mail services.

CREDENTIALS/PARKING: All requests for working press, radio, television or photographer passes should be made to Tanner Tedeschi, UGA Sports Communications, P.O. Box 1472, Athens, Ga., 30603-1472 as soon as possible prior to game day. He can be reached by phone (706) 542-7965, by fax at (706) 542-7993 or email at tannert@sports.uga.edu. All written requests should be made on official letterhead. Parking is available in the commuter lot behind the field, no parking passes are issued.

INTERVIEWS/PRACTICE: Please contact the Sports Communications office at (706) 542-1621 for interview requests. Georgia players and coaches will be available before or after practices and after games in the dugout following a brief cooling off period. The locker room is closed to the media.

STILL/TV PHOTOGRAPHERS: Accredited photographers will be allowed to shoot on the field. Photographers must stay outside the playing area and past each dugout. The areas in front of the dugout, inside the dugout and around home plate are off limits.

TELEPHONES: Telephones in the press box for the working media are used on a first-come, first-serve basis. Only local, collect and credit card calls may be placed.

TELEVISION: A television booth is located in the press box and camera platforms for home plate and center field positions are in place. Low first base and third base positions will be on the field. A chalk outline will be drawn around these two spots.

TOBACCO POLICY: In keeping with UGAAA policy, the entire seating area and press box of the UGA Soccer/Softball Complex has been designated as a tobacco-free area.

VISITING RADIO: A courtesy phone line is provided in the press box for visiting radio in the designated visiting radio booth in the press box.

DIRECTIONS TO THE UGA SOCCER/SOFTBALL COMPLEX:
From Atlanta: Take I-85 North to Highway 316 (signs to Athens). Continue on 316 approximately 40 miles. Turn right on the Athens Bypass (Loop 10) southbound. Take the Milledge Ave. exit and turn right at the bottom of the ramp. The complex is approximately one quarter mile ahead on the right.

From Birmingham: Take I-20 East and exit at the Conyers Exit (Exit 82 - Highway 138). Turn left onto Highway 138 at the light. Continue for approximately 20 miles where Highway 138 will merge into Highway 78 East. Continue on 78 East for 18 miles and turn right onto Highway 316. Go approximately four miles until you reach the Athens Bypass (Loop 10) southbound. Take the Milledge Avenue exit and turn right at the bottom of the ramp. The complex is approximately one quarter mile ahead on the right.

GEORGIA SOFTBALL ON THE WORLD WIDE WEB: Information on Georgia Softball can be obtained on at www.georgiadogs.com. Each week, news releases, game notes and current statistics are updated. Also included are coach and player biographies and historical data for use by the media. The website also offers premium video and audio content that gives Bulldog fans unprecedented access to Georgia's athletic program.

Jack Turner Stadium / SEC Opponent Information

Jack Turner Stadium

The Bulldog softball team will play its eighth season in its multi-million dollar softball stadium in 2011. The facility holds close to 1,400 fans with additional standing room and features the best amenities possible. The Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host three NCAA Regionals and one NCAA Super Regional since its inception in 2004.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugout are connected via tunnel to locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it — an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers, and the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built as well. The press box has suites for radio, television, and for both Georgia and the visiting team's athletic director. The stadium is finished with an awning covering the upper section. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

Jack Turner Stadium is a part of the Turner Family Sports Complex which is also home to the Georgia Bulldogs soccer team and the Turner Soccer Complex.

Jack Turner:

Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999, where he has served as an active member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC and Gridiron. As an athlete he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force and after serving his country embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What has followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack has dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service includes:

Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund), Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association, Member of the board of the UGA Athletic Association, Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee, Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee, Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships), Founding member and partner in the President's Club, Member of the Heritage Society

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Distinction," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

2011 Season Preview

Preseason National Top 25 Rankings:

• USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association Preseason Top 25 Poll: #3

• ESPN.com/USA Softball Preseason Top 25 Poll: #4

• The #3 ranking in the USA Today/NFCA poll is the best preseason ranking in program history, and it matches Georgia's highest-ever ranking in any poll as the Bulldogs were also tabbed No. 3 in the final USA Today/NFCA poll of the 2010 season.

• Nine of Georgia's 2011 opponents appeared in the two preseason polls including five opponents in the Top 10. Those foes include No. 2/1 (USA Today poll/ESPN.com poll) Arizona, No. 4/7 Tennessee, No. 5/5 Florida, No. 6/3 Alabama, No. 9/6 Oklahoma, No. 18/17 Georgia Tech, No. 19/16 LSU, No. 21/19 Texas A&M and No. 23/22 Oklahoma State.

• Additionally, seven other 2011 Bulldog opponents received votes in at least one of the polls including Auburn, East Carolina, Illinois State, Kentucky, Lipscomb, Maryland and Oregon State.

Southeastern Conference Coaches' Poll Results: Georgia Picked Second In Eastern Division:

Eastern Division:	Western Division:	Predicted SEC Champion: Alabama
1. Tennessee (3)	1. Alabama (4)
2. Georgia (3)	2. LSU
3. Florida (1)	3. Auburn
4. Kentucky	4. Arkansas
5. South Carolina	5. Mississippi State
	6. Ole Miss

Three Bulldogs Named To Preseason All-SEC Softball Team:

• Seniors Alisa Goler, Taylor Schlopy and Megan Wiggins were selected to the Preseason All-SEC Softball Team as voted on by the league's coaches. In the fourth year in which the SEC has released a preseason team this marks the first year in which Georgia has had three players selected. Last year, Goler and Schlopy became the first Bulldogs to earn a spot a preseason All-SEC squad.

Reviewing The Bulldogs Accomplishments From 2010:

• Georgia is coming off of its second-ever and second-consecutive NCAA Women's College World Series appearance in 2010, and the Bulldogs are the only team to reach the WCWS Final Four in both 2009 and 2010.

• Georgia posted a 50-13 overall record in 2010. In the process of earning the team's first 50-win season since 2006, the Bulldogs established new single-season school records for home runs (99), runs (422), doubles (102), RBI (380), total bases (944), walks (231), slugging percentage (.578) and on-base percentage (.413).

Returning For 2011:

• In 2011, Georgia returns 17 players including every starter from a year ago, and 10 of the returning student-athletes played on both of Georgia's WCWS squads.

• A year removed from a team that had no seniors, this year's Bulldog roster is headlined by eight seniors. Along with five juniors, Georgia will have 13 upperclassmen in 2011 while four sophomores and six freshmen round the roster out at 23 players.

• Georgia returns the vast majority of it's statistical production from 2010:

Returning From The Plate:

	AVG.	AB	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	TB	SLG%	BB	HP	OB%	SF	SH	SB-ATT
2010 Team Totals	.233	1632	422	525	102	10	99	380	944	.578	231	36	.413	17	10	127-156

Percentage Returning	--	98.0	98.4	100.0	95.7	100.0	98.1	99.2

Career Records Watch:

• The 2011 season will be one to keep a close eye on the Georgia career record books. Members of the 2011 roster already hold 83 spots in the top 10 in the record books with another 26 spots on the charts very probable to be earned this year.

Attendance & The 2011 Schedule:

• In 2010, Georgia had a school-record home attendance of 22,014, and the average attendance was 667.

• This year, SEC weekend's will feature single games on Friday, Saturday and Sunday rather than a double-header on Saturday, which will give Georgia a total of 36 regular season home games for the Bulldog Nation to come out to Jack Turner Stadium.

• The Bulldogs' full schedule includes 56 contests, four regular-season tournaments and a 28-game Southeastern Conference slate.

• A total of 28 games will come against teams that advanced into the 2010 NCAA postseason tournament including 13 contests against six of the national seeds.

Head Coach Lu Harris-Champer

Overall Record: 711-245-1 (.743) in 14 seasons
Record at Georgia: 502-181 (.735) in 10 seasons
SEC Record at Georgia: 184-100 (.648)

Head coach Lu Harris-Champer has been at the helm of the Georgia program for 10 seasons and has led the Bulldogs to nine-straight NCAA Division I Championship appearances. Making the Bulldogs a national contender year-in and year-out, Harris-Champer directed Georgia to back-to-back final four showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010.

Prior to Harris-Champer's arrival in Athens, the Georgia softball program produced just a 115-123 record with no Southeastern Conference championships or NCAA appearances. Under the direction of Harris-Champer, the Bulldog softball team has compiled a 502-181 overall record with nine-straight NCAA tournament appearances and two SEC championships, establishing Georgia as one of the elite programs in the country.

In 2010, Harris-Champer's Georgia squad posted a 50-13 overall record advancing to the WCWS where they went 2-2 and reached the final four. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-8 and finished second in the Eastern Division. In the final rankings of the 2010 season, the Bulldogs were ranked No. 3 in the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) final poll and No. 4 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball final poll. The No. 3 ranking is the program's highest-ever ranking. In the UGA record books, several records fell as the Bulldogs established new single-season school records for home runs (99), runs (422), doubles (102), RBI (380), total bases (944), walks (231), slugging percentage (.578) and on-base percentage (.413). The Bulldogs also set multiple single inning and single game records in 2010. Against Bowling Green on Feb. 19, Georgia's biggest inning school history came in the third with 13 runs on 11 hits in 17 plate appearances, all school records. For single-game records, Georgia established a new doubles record with six against Radford while tying records for home runs in a game with five against UCF and stolen bases in a game with nine vs. Minnesota. Under Harris-Champer's guidance, Alisa Goler and Taylor Schlopy earned second-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honors while Schlopy also garnered ESPN.com All-America recognition and was named a top 25 finalist for the 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2009, Harris-Champer's Bulldogs were tabbed the Easton Sports, Inc., Team of the Year after going 47-12 and advancing to their first-ever Women's College World Series appearance, where they went 3-2 and were one of the final four teams standings. The Bulldogs were the nation's youngest team in 2009 with 90-percent underclassman but still finished the year with NCAA statistics rankings of first in fielding percentage (.981), second in slugging percentage (.574), fourth in home runs per game (1.44), sixth in scoring (6.32 runs per game) and 10th in batting average (.319). In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-7 to finish second in the Eastern Division and third overall, and they set a new league record for team slugging percentage and would have set a new home run record with 85 long balls had it not been for Florida's 86 home runs in 2009. Georgia also tied for the league lead in triples with 17 and its national-leading fielding percentage was the third-best in SEC history. Additionally, several team records were broken in 2009 as the Bulldogs established new single-season records for home runs, slugging percentage, on-base percentage and fielding percentage, and they tied the school record for sacrifice flies (23). In both the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) final poll and the ESPN.com/USA Softball final poll, the Bulldogs ranked fourth behind national champion Washington, national runner-up Florida and Alabama. The ranking of fourth is the highest-ever for Georgia passing the program's previous best of fifth during middle of the 2004 season. Goler and Schlopy were named first-team All-Americans. Goler was also a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year top 10 finalist, and Schlopy was chosen to the USA Softball Japan Cup Team and helped the Americans win Gold.

In 2008, the Georgia softball program finished with an overall record of 46-24, an SEC mark of 14-14 (3rd Eastern Division) and advanced to just its second-ever NCAA Super Regional to exceed expectations and display a promising future. With an 18-player roster consisting of fifty percent freshmen and 12 underclassmen, the prospect of what to expect from the onset of the season was uncertain. Regardless of what anyone's outlook was for youthful squad, it's clear that the Bulldogs went well beyond those expectations as they recorded Georgia's seventh-straight season with 46 wins and earned the program's seventh-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. The Bulldogs finished ranked No. 17 by USA Today/NFCA and No. 18 by ESPN.com/USA Softball. Harris-Champer recorded and surpassed 600 collegiate career coaching victories in 2008 as well as achieving and surpassing 400 wins at Georgia in her eight seasons with the team.

The Bulldogs concluded their 2007 campaign with an appearance in the championship game of

Georgia's Coaches Pledge

These student-athletes are entrusted to my care. I will train them to the best of my ability. I will develop them into smartly disciplined, physically fit, highly-trained athletes thoroughly indoctrinated in love for the University of Georgia Bulldogs who represent the University of Georgia and the athletic program in the highest possible manner. I will encourage our athletes and insist that they perform to the best of their ability in the classroom as well as in the arena of competitive athletics. I will require of them, and demonstrate by my own example, the highest standards of integrity, personal conduct, morality, sportsmanship and professional skill.

the NCAA Lincoln Regional. Georgia's 2007 season got off to a relatively fast start after compiling a 22-8 record before SEC play began. The Bulldogs then went on to post a 46-28 overall record and a 13-15 mark in conference action. Georgia won seven of its last eight SEC games propelling the team to a school-record sixth-consecutive postseason appearance. Kellie Middleton became a two-time All-American after earning Second Team honors from Easton, which marked the sixth-consecutive year in which a Bulldog earned All-America honors.

Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs captured their third Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title en route to posting its fifth consecutive season of 54 or more wins in 2006. Overall, UGA tallied a 54-15 overall record and earned a berth in the NCAA Regionals. Harris-Champer secured her 500th career win on April 2 with a victory over Ole Miss. Offensively, the Bulldogs concluded the season with the seventh-highest team batting average (.318) in the nation. Georgia also set a school record after three student-athletes (Kellie Middleton, Jessica Doucette and Megan McAllister) earned All-America distinctions in 2006.

The 2005 season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Bulldogs as they earned their second conference championship in three years while appearing in the championship game of an NCAA Super Regional. Under the direction of Harris-Champer, Georgia posted a 26-4 record in Southeastern Conference play, tying the second-best mark in conference history. Michelle Green and Kim Wendland were named Louisville Slugger/NFCA and Easton All-Americans at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Harris-Champer tallied her second SEC Coach of the Year honor as well.

The Bulldogs concluded the 2004 season with an appearance in the championship game of a NCAA Regional. Georgia earned series wins over LSU, Tennessee, Florida and Mississippi State in conference play and earned a berth in the championship game of the SEC Tournament. The Bulldogs finished the season in the top-20 in several national statistics, including a third-place finish in team batting average (.329), six-place ranking in fielding percentage (.974) and a seventh-place finish in runs per game (5.72).

In 2003, the Bulldogs captured the school's first series wins over the LSU Tigers and the Alabama Crimson Tide and capped off the SEC regular season with a 12-4 win over Alabama, clinching the program's first SEC crown. Georgia also earned its second consecutive berth in the NCAA Regionals, capturing two wins at the tournament. At the conclusion of the 2003 season the Bulldogs led the SEC in 18 categories and were second in five more. Georgia tied two NCAA records, four SEC records and established 35 new Georgia records.

Harris-Champer took Georgia to its first-ever berth in the NCAA Softball Tournament in 2002. The 59 wins ranked as the second-best in the nation in 2002. Harris and the Bulldogs started their season with a 24-game winning streak. By the end of the regular season, Georgia had finished second in both the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division and the Conference Tournament. Nicole Barber and Kim Wendland became Georgia's first two All-Americans in softball and were also named First Team All-SEC. Barber became the NCAA record holder for consecutive steals with 73.

In 2001, Harris-Champer brought a run-and-gun style of play to Athens and helped Georgia to a 33-win season while setting several team records along the way. Harris-Champer made her first season count against Georgia's biggest rivals, sweeping Georgia Tech and Florida, and taking two of three from Tennessee.

Harris-Champer came to Athens after leading Southern Mississippi to back-to-back appearances in the Women's College World Series in 1999 and 2000.

The success Harris-Champer enjoyed in Hattiesburg and in her 10 seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs continues her excellent record as a player, collegiate coach and professional coach. Harris-Champer was named head coach at Southern Miss in January 1998, and made history the following spring. The Lady Eagles, in their first season of competition after a seven-year layoff, compiled a 52-9 record and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation and reached the College World Series.

Harris-Champer was named 1999 South Region Coach of the Year at the conclusion of the successful World Series run. Southern Miss completed the 2000 season with a 63-13 record and number four national ranking, winning the Conference USA regular-season and tournament titles, the NCAA Regional title, and advancing to the Women's College World Series semifinals. In addition, USM pitcher Courtney Blades won the 2000 Honda Broderick Award as the nation's top player.

In 1997, Harris-Champer served as head coach of the Orlando Wahoos of the Women's Pro Fastpitch League. She led Orlando to a 60-13 record and earned Coach of the Year honors after guiding her team to regular-season and tournament titles.

Harris-Champer was head coach at Nicholls State in 1996 and 1997, leading the school to impressive records of 46-19 and 48-23, respectively, and a pair of NCAA Regional berths. Upon being named head coach at Nicholls in August of 1995, Harris-Champer inherited a team with only seven players on its roster. With a team comprised primarily of inexperienced players and walk-ons, she led Nicholls to the Southland Conference regular-season and tournament championships as well as the finals of the NCAA Regional. Harris was tabbed 1996 Southland Conference and South Region Coach of the Year and finished third in National Coach of the Year balloting.

Prior to her stint at Nicholls, Harris-Champer spent five years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Western Illinois. During that span, the Westerwinds were 156-98, won the 1992 Gateway Conference tournament, the 1993 Mid-Continent Conference regular season and tournament crowns and the 1996 Mid-Continent Conference West Division title.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Harris-Champer played three seasons at Western Illinois after transferring from Mesa (Calif.) Community College. She is married to Bulldog assistant swim coach Jerry Champer.

Lu and Jerry have three children: Twins Jenna & Emma, 6, born Aug. 2, 2004; and Mya, 4, born May 23, 2006.

Assistant Coaches

Gerry Glasco

Recruiting Coordinator / Assistant Coach • Third Season

Gerry Glasco enters his third season as recruiting coordinator and assistant coach at the University of Georgia in 2011. In his first year at UGA in 2009, Glasco helped the Bulldogs reach their first-ever Women's College World Series and played a key role in Georgia's hitting instruction, helping the Dogs bat .319 with a school-record 85 home runs. The Bulldogs also finished the year with nation's second-best slugging percentage, a school-record .574 clip, and they were sixth in scoring at 6.32 runs per game. In 2010, Glasco helped the Bulldogs reach the WCWS a second consecutive season while establishing eight new single-season school records including home runs (99), runs (422), doubles (102), RBI (380), total bases (944), walks (231), slugging percentage (.578) and on-base percentage (.413). Over his two years with the program, Georgia is 97-25.

A native of Crab Orchard, Ill., Glasco joined the Bulldog program in the summer of 2008 from Johnston City High School where he worked as an assistant coach. From 1999-2004 and from 2007-08, Glasco worked in the assistant coach role with Johnson City High School. During the 2007 and 2008 seasons the Indians posted 32-3 marks each spring. Glasco also served as coach of the junior high school program that finished 29-0 while winning the state championship in 2007 and 25-4 with a third place finish at the state level in 2006.

Glasco was the founder of the Illinois Southern Force Softball organization, and he served as head coach of the Southern Force Gold from 2001-08 finishing in the top-20 four times at the prestigious ASA Gold Nationals including two finishes in the top-10. He led the Southern Force to the 2004 18U Gold National Championship, which was held in Marietta, Ga. Additionally, the Illinois Southern Force program became nationally recognized by winning the Canada Cup Futures Championship in 2003, and more recently finishing second and fourth at the ASA 16U A Nationals in 2007 and 2008, respectively. Glasco and the Southern Force coaching staff were honored as the "National Travel Team Coaching Staff of the Year" in 2004 by the NFCA (National Fastpitch Coaching Association).

Glasco graduated from Crab Orchard High School in 1976 where he lettered in track, baseball and basketball. He went on to attend the University of Illinois, where he graduated with a degree in Agricultural Economics in 1980.

Glasco has been married to Vickie Johnson Glasco for 30 years, and they have three daughters, Tara (28), Erin (24) and Geri Ann (16). Tara played collegiate softball at Southern Illinois University Carbondale, and Erin played collegiality at Texas A&M, where she helped lead the Aggies to a runner-up finish for the national championship at the Women's College World Series in 2008.

Megan McAllister

Assistant Coach • Second Season

Megan McAllister enters her second season as an assistant coach for the Georgia program in 2011. In her first season with the program as an assistant coach in 2010, McAllister helped the Bulldogs reach the Women's College World Series and finish the season at 50-13 with the program's highest-ever ranking at No. 3. McAllister also aided in the Bulldogs establishing eight new single-season school records in 2010 including home runs (99), runs (422), doubles (102), RBI (380), total bases (944), walks (231), slugging percentage (.578) and on-base percentage (.413). Over his two years with the program, Georgia is 97-25.

McAllister rejoined the Georgia program after spending one season as an assistant coach at Wingate University in 2009. She helped guide the Wingate Bulldogs to a 33-16-1 overall record and the 2009 South Atlantic Conference regular season championship with a school-record 13 league wins.

Prior to her stint at Wingate, McAllister spent the 2008 season as a volunteer coach at her alma mater, Georgia. During her volunteer year at UGA, she worked primarily with the hitters and defense, and the Bulldogs went 46-24 and advanced to Super Regionals in the NCAA Tournament.

McAllister was a four-year letterwinner for Georgia from 2004-07, and in February of 2007, she was drafted by the Philadelphia Force of the National Professional Fast-Pitch League. During her playing career at Georgia, McAllister earned Easton second-team and NFCA third-team All-America honors in 2006 after hitting .350 with 16 doubles, a then school-record 16 home runs and 64 RBI. McAllister was also a first-team NFCA All-Southeast Region selection and a first-team All-SEC honoree for both the 2005 and 2006 seasons. She helped Georgia earn its second SEC Championship in 2005, and in 2004, she was selected to the SEC All-Freshmen Team. McAllister still holds the Georgia record for career home runs with 47, and also has career ranks of first (tied) in sacrifice flies (12), second in doubles (46), second in extra-base hits (93), second in RBI (184), third in walks (119), third in total bases (390), third in hit-by-pitches (39), fifth in hits (203), sixth in slugging percentage (.583), sixth in on-base percentage (.430).

A native of Carlsbad, Calif., McAllister earned a Bachelor of Science in Family and Consumer Sciences degree in Consumer Economics from Georgia in May of 2007.

Tony Baldwin

Volunteer Coach • First Season

Tony Baldwin enters his first year as a volunteer coach with the Georgia program in 2011.

Baldwin joins the Bulldogs from Camp Weequahic where he serves as an Assistant Director. Camp Weequahic, located in Lakewood, Penn., offers a complete, traditional co-ed camping experience as its individual choice program provides a distinctive summer experience where campers excel and explore in their own individual interests and still feel part of the history and traditions of camp. The camp encourages participants to try new activities, improve their skills, and, most importantly, build new and lasting friendships.

Prior to joining Camp Weequahic, Baldwin spent fourteen years coaching NCAA Division I baseball most recently as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Under Baldwin's direction, MSU landed the top recruiting class in the Big Ten in 2008, as voted on by Baseball America. Baldwin went to MSU from Dartmouth, where he spent six seasons beginning as an assistant coach in 1999 before being promoted to assistant head coach in 2003. During his tenure at Dartmouth, the Big Green won three Ivy League Red Rolfe Division titles. Baldwin began his coaching career at his alma mater, Butler University, where he coached hitters, infielders and catchers. In a five-year stint at Butler, Baldwin helped the Bulldogs win regular season Midwestern Collegiate Conference titles in 1996, 1998, and 1999 along with a conference tournament title in 1998.

A native of Bloomington, Ind., Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors.

Baldwin is a part owner and inventor of Swift Stik, Inc., which is a training aid for batting which is endorsed by many professional, Olympic, collegiate and high school baseball and softball teams and players.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne, have two daughters, Ella and Abby, and one son, Brady.

UGA Athletic Administration

Dr. Michael F. Adams
University President

Now in his 14th year as President of the University of Georgia, Dr. Michael F. Adams is one of America's longest serving and best known university presidents. A widely respected figure in higher education, he has been elected by his peers to lead a number of national organizations including the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities, the American Council on Education and the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Executive Committee.

He holds a Ph.D. from The Ohio State University and has been awarded five honorary degrees. In addition, he is a specialist in political education and higher education administration and has written in both areas. Dr. Adams has held senior positions in state and national government – as Chief of Staff to former Senator Howard Baker and as an advisor to former Tennessee Governor and current Senator Lamar Alexander. He has been involved in the management of state and national campaigns, and is frequently consulted by leaders of both political parties.

Either personally or on behalf of the University he has received more than 50 awards in higher education, including the Knight Foundation Award for Presidential Leadership, the Pioneer Ward for Leadership in Civil Rights and the James T. Rogers Award, the highest honor bestowed by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. He is the recipient of the prestigious Governor's Award in the Humanities from the Georgia Endowment for the Humanities. For nine consecutive years, Georgia Trend magazine has included Dr. Adams on its list of Most Influential Georgians.

The UGA campus has been transformed since he took office, with more than $1 billion in new construction, renovation and infrastructure and 6.2 million square feet of new space completed. The East Campus Village, served by the Harris Dining Commons, added space for more than 1,200 students to help meet demand for on-campus living, and another 500- bed residence hall opened for the fall 2010 term. The new home of the Lamar Dodd School of Art, also on East Campus, opened in 2008, and an expansion of the Georgia Museum of Art is under construction. A number of historic structures on North Campus have been restored and renovated. A new Special Collections Library began construction in January 2010, and a range of student-serving facilities, including an expansion of the Tate Student Center, have opened recently.

Under his leadership, the University of Georgia has attained its highest rankings ever, has become the most selective in its history, has grown from some 29,000 students to its highest enrollment of 34,885 and in the past 12 years, UGA has raised more money than it had in the previous 213 years.

Dr. Adams is a graduate of the public schools of Georgia and Tennessee, earning his diploma in 1966 as the most outstanding graduate of Chattanooga High School. He has been married to Mary Lynn Ethridge Adams, whom he met in a Lipscomb University history class, for 40 years. They are the parents of two sons, both of whom are married to UGA alumnae, and are very proud of their first granddaughter, two-year-old Campbell.

Greg McGarity
Director Of Athletics

Athens native and University of Georgia graduate Greg McGarity was named Director of Athletics at UGA on August 13, 2010, after serving 18 years in the athletic department at the University of Florida.

At UF, he most recently served as Executive Associate Athletic Director after serving as both an associate and senior associate athletic director during his tenure. His duties at Florida included assisting the athletic director in daily operations of the department, assisting in preparation and approval of the annual budget and extensive involvement in long-term planning, contracts, competition scheduling and employment searches, among other areas. McGarity was involved in the planning and supervision of several construction projects, including the expansion of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and the William Heavener Football Complex.

McGarity graduated from the University of Georgia in 1976 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism. He was a letterman on the 1973 Bulldog tennis team and following graduation began his professional career at UGA. After serving as a student assistant from 1973-77, he held positions as assistant sports information director and head women's tennis coach (1977-82), administrative assistant (1982-88), and assistant athletic director for facilities and event management (1988-92).

Citing McGarity's top-level experience in one of America's most successful athletic programs, Georgia president Dr. Michael F. Adams said McGarity understands UGA's desire to compete and succeed at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics while maintaining a primary focus on the needs and success of student-athletes.

"Greg McGarity is an experienced senior athletic administrator who has spent his entire life in athletics and athletic administration," Adams said on the day of McGarity's appointment. "He was admired greatly during the time he worked in the department here, and I can tell you from the comments I have read during this process that this is considered to be a great loss at the University of Florida. He has been involved in major personnel decisions at Florida, and I consider hiring the right people in the right positions to be the most important function of a senior administrator."

McGarity is married to the former Sheryl Holland, who graduated from UGA in 1976 with a bachelor of science degree in education. They have one son, Alex, 21, who is a rising senior at the University of Florida.

Softball Camp

The Georgia Softball Camp, conducted on the campus of the University of Georgia, is annually one of the finest camps of its kind in the country. The addition of Georgia's multi-million dollar stadium has upgraded the facilities to "second to none" status.

Directed by head coach Lu Harris-Champer, the sessions are aimed at providing the best coach-player ratio of any softball camp in operation. Assisted by members of the Georgia softball team, the goal of the instructional staff is to assist each camper to improve to her highest level of ability. Harris-Champer and her staff want each camper to leave with the feeling that she has bettered herself and her softball skills by participating in the camp.

Harris-Champer and her staff annually conduct two camp sessions. Both sessions are for young women ages 8-18 who have the option of staying overnight or just the day. All camp activities will take place at either the Women's Athletic Complex located on S. Milledge Ave., the home of Bulldog softball, or on the University's Intramural Fields. Campers will have access to the main playing stadium, batting cages/bullpen areas in right field and left field territories, locker room, video assessment center and the indoor training facility.

Both sessions are expected to reach maximum capacity very quickly! For applications and information write or call: Georgia Bulldog Softball Camp c/o Coach Lu Harris-Champer; P.O. Box 1472, Athens, GA 30603; (706) 425-3350.

Endowments

The Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program was instituted to allow supporters of the University of Georgia Athletic Association to invest in the educational opportunities of UGA student-athletes. The program is vital to the future of Georgia Athletics by providing the long-term solution of keeping pace with escalating expenses. A gift to establish a scholarship provides income towards funding a scholarship each year and permanently recognizes the donor or any individual whose honor the scholarship is named. A full scholarship is endowed through a gift of $150,000.

These and other commitments represent the foundation of the Georgia Athletic's Program's future. For more information on the Scholarship Endowment Program or other giving opportunities, please contact the development office in the UGA Athletic Association at 706-542-9220.

Southeastern Conference

Setting the Standard for Intercollegiate Athletics in Softball

SEC Softball will celebrate its 15th year of existence in 2011 and has established itself as one of the leading conferences in the sport.

The SEC qualified seven teams for the 2010 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU and Tennessee, as the conference made its 13th overall, eighth consecutive, Women's College World Series appearance. For the third consecutive year, an SEC team received the No. 1 national seed, as the Alabama Crimson Tide coveted the honor in 2010. Overall, five teams earned national seeds: No. 1 Alabama, No. 4 Florida, No. 6 Georgia, No. 12 LSU and No. 15. Tennessee. The SEC advanced three teams to Oklahoma City: Florida, Georgia and Tennessee while Georgia and Tennessee advanced to the semifinals.

Alabama won the 2010 conference title as they posted a 23-4 SEC record, marking their second title in school history. It was quite the year for the Tide as they posted a 52-11 overall record and swept league honors. Pat Murphy was named Coach of the Year while Kelsi Dunne earned Pitcher of the Year honors and Charlotte Morgan defended her Player of the Year title. Kayla Braud was named Co-Freshman of the Year along with LSU's Rachele Fico and Tennessee's Kat Dotson. Arkansas' Jessica Bachkora was selected as Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Softball came under the auspices of the SEC in the 1996-97 season. Since that time, 10 different conference teams have made appearances in the NCAA Championship, including six teams earning Women's College World Series berths - one by South Carolina in the inaugural season, Alabama in 2000, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008, 2009, Florida in 2008, 2009 and 2010, Georgia in 2009 and 2010, LSU in 2001 and 2004 and Tennessee in 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2010.

Eight teams (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee) have made Top 25 appearances and six teams have climbed into the Top 10 (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU, South Carolina and Tennessee) of the NFCA/USA Today Poll. At least one SEC team has been ranked in the poll each week since the inception of SEC Softball.

South Carolina is the flagship team of the league with a rich history in softball dating back 36 seasons. The Gamecocks have made 15 NCAA Regional and three Women's College World Series appearances.

Mississippi State played softball for five seasons during the 1980's before resuming the sport when it was added to the SEC. Tennessee added softball in 1995-96, one year before its inception in the SEC. Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU and Ole Miss began softball programs in 1996-97 to give the league 11 representatives (Vanderbilt does not sponsor softball).

The 1999 season was the first in which the conference was eligible for an automatic berth to the NCAA Championships. As the sport continues to grow in competitiveness and popularity, the SEC has had six different regular season champions and five different conference tournament champions.

2010 Recap

Bulldogs Advance To Women's College World Series And Reach Final Four For Second-Straight Year

The Georgia Bulldogs finished the 2010 season with a 50-13 overall record, made the school's ninth-consecutive NCAA Division I Softball Championship appearance and advanced to the Women's College World Series for a second-straight season. At the WCWS, Georgia advanced to be one of the final four remaining teams and is the only program to achieve that feat in both 2009 and 2010.

In the final rankings of the 2010 season, the Bulldogs were ranked No. 3 in the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) final poll and No. 4 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball final poll. The No. 3 ranking is the program's highest-ever ranking as the Bulldogs trailed only national champion UCLA and national runner-up Arizona. Georgia matched its previous-best No. 4 ranking in the USA Softball poll where the Bulldogs were ranked behind UCLA, Arizona and Tennessee. The Lady Vols were fourth in the NFCA poll while Washington rounded out the top five in both polls.

Georgia's 2010 run to the WCWS included going 3-0 as host to the NCAA Athens Regional against Elon, Florida State and Radford and then sweeping the NCAA Athens Super Regional against California.

In Southeastern Conference play, UGA went 18-8 to finish second in the Easton Division led by All-SEC performances from juniors Alisa Goler, Taylor Schlopy, Megan Wiggins and Brianna Hesson. Goler, Schlopy and Wiggins earned First Team honors while Wiggins and Hesson were named to the All-Defensive team in left field and at first base, respectively.

Goler and Schlopy went on to garner All-America honors as both were named to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Second Team. Schlopy was also named to the ESPN.com All-America Team.

Goler led the Bulldogs with a .755 slugging percentage and a single-season school record 55 walks. Goler also tied for the team lead with 16 home runs while driving in 57 and scoring 43 runs. Additionally, Goler was second in on-base percentage at .534 and third in batting average at .377 while also stealing a personal-best 10 for 10 bases.

Schlopy was a top 25 finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award, led the team in several offensive categories in 2010 including batting average (.418), on-base percentage (.566), runs scored (79), triples (5) and stolen bases (30). Schlopy's on-base percentage broke the previous single-season UGA record of .551 set by Goler in 2009 while her 79 runs scored also established a new single-season school record surpassing the previous mark of 78 set by Nicole Barber in 2003. Additionally, Schlopy would have set a new school record with 50 walks but was second on the team in that category behind Goler's 55. Schlopy also contributed 11 home runs and 33 RBI in 2010.

In the UGA record books, several records fell as the Bulldogs established new single-season school records for home runs (99), runs (422), doubles (102), RBI (380), total bases (944), walks (231), slugging percentage (.578) and on-base percentage (.413).

The Bulldogs also set multiple single inning and single game records in 2010. Against Bowling Green on Feb. 19, Georgia's biggest inning school history came in the third with 13 runs on 11 hits in 17 plate appearances, all school records. For single-game records, Georgia established a new doubles record with six against Radford while tying record for home runs in a game with five against UCF and stolen bases in a game with nine vs. Minnesota.
